

19th Congress of the EPA in Malaga: 12 days to the opening

- 8 plenary sessions - 9 parallel sessions.
- 65 speakers from 16 countries for best practices and integrated and interdisciplinary visions on the issues of new sustainable urban mobility and the role of parking.
- Internationally renowned speakers such as Donald Shoup, Maarten Steinbuch, Philippe Crist, Pedro Barradas, Karen Vancluysen, Giuliano Mingardo, Massimo Marciari and many others.
- 9 cities represented (with mayors, councillors, directors): Antwerp, Barcelona, Lisbon, Leuven, Lille, Madrid, Malaga, Prague and Sofia.
- To date delegates from the United States, Israel, Japan, Australia and 22 European countries.
- The "Parking Oscars" in the session awarding the 5 winners of the prestigious EPA AWARDS 2019 chosen from amongst 15 finalists (from 10 countries): the state of the art of the parking industry in a breath taking one hour and fifteen minutes.
- The 19th Congress will be the most comprehensive and multidisciplinary EPA event yet, involving experts from the parking industry, national and local administrators, representatives of European commissions and projects. Experts on the following themes: parking, mobility, urban logistics, electric mobility, data world, ITS, apps, mobility parking and the environment and much more.
- You cannot miss debates, presentations, workshops and round tables on the solutions, trends and strategies of our sector to identify new opportunities and solutions.
- All information is published on the Congress website: We invite you to participate in this exceptional information and exchange opportunity by registering for the congress using the address: www.epacongress.eu
- Let's meet in Malaga!