

Polis working group, Brussels, 30 October 2012

Active Travel and Healthy Urban Environments

Chair: (tbc)

Session 1: Introduction
09.00	Welcome from Mr. André Mordant of the EESC
	Introduction from Polis	Sylvain Haon
Session 2: Reducing the impact of transport on air quality and environmental noise
09.30	Overview on EU Air Quality and Noise directives	tbc
09:40	Curbing air pollution in Paris: a comparative analysis of the "Low Emission Zones"	Satya Proag, Agence de la Mobilité, City of Paris
10:00	Implementation of transport measure to improve air quality in Brussels	Alice Gérard, Bruxelles Environnement - IBGE
10:20	Discussion
11.00	Tea & Coffee Break
Session 3: Promoting active travel towards healthier communities
11:30	London National Health Service (NHS) Travel Network	Gemma Hagen, Programme Manager, London NHS Travel Network
11:50	City of Modena and PHAN project: Networking for Physical Activity	Simona Arletti, City of Modena and President of Italian Healthy Cities Network
12:10	The Transport, Health and Environment Pan-European Programme (The PEP) for sustainable transport	Christian Schweizer, WHO
12:30	Roadmap towards the 4th High Level Meeting on Transport, Environment and Health, at Transport Research Arena, Paris, 2014	Nadine Asconchilo, French Ministry for Ecology, Sustainable Development, Transport and Housing
12:50	Discussion

13:00	Lunch
Session 4: Integrating public health and transport/urban planning approaches
14:30	Integrating the health aspect in Sustainable Urban Mobility planning in France	Laurent Jardinier, CERTU
14:50	A comprehensive approach to health in regional transportation planning	William M. Lyons, Volpe National Transportation Systems Center, U.S. Department of Transportation
15:10	Successful examples from innovative integration of health in regional transportation planning in the U.S. The case of the Nashville Area.	Leslie Meehan, Director of Healthy Communities, Nashville Area Metropolitan Planning Organization, Tennessee (U.S.)
15:30	Discussion
15:45	Tea & Coffee Break
Roundtable
16:15	Invited panelists: Mr. Sylvain Haon (Polis), Mr. Christian Schweizer (WHO), Ms. Isabelle Durant MEP (tbc), and session speakers.
17:00	Close

Venue

The meeting will take place at:

European Economic and Social Committee (EESC)

Room: JDE 63 (6th floor)

Rue Belliard 99

1040 Brussels

<http://www.eesc.europa.eu/?i=portal.en.contact-info>

It is also possible to attend the meeting remotely by web conference. Please contact Florinda Boschetti if you are interested in this possibility.

How to reach the venue: Metro station: Maelbeek or Schuman (line 1 or 5).

Bus stop: Luxembourg

Contact

Florinda Boschetti, Polix: fboschetti@polisnetwork.eu Tel: 00 32 (0)2 500 56 74

Polix reception: 00 32 (0)2 500 56 70

Map

